Round that tender Infant,
Radiant beams are spread,
For the holy angels
Guard His lowly bed.
While the wond'ring shepherds
Come with Eastern Kings,
Kneel before the cradle
Where the Mother sings.

3.

Yes, the Lord Who loves us,
Here was humbly born,
Coming down to save us,
As on Christmas morn.
Let us bow before Him,
At the manger-throne,
There behold the Saviour,
Men and Angels own.

For Joseph and for Mary
There was no room at all:
The busy world could find them
No shelter but a stall.
Chorus. What means, &c.

But for God's holy pilgrims
There needs no lordly bed:
For lo! an endless glory
Beams from that lowly shed.
Chorus. What means, &c.

Dear Lord, the busy worldlings
Still close their ears and eyes;
And little reck the proud ones
Of music in the skies.
Chorus. What means, &c.

And hear the music still;—
Yea, "Glory in the highest
And to mankind goodwill."

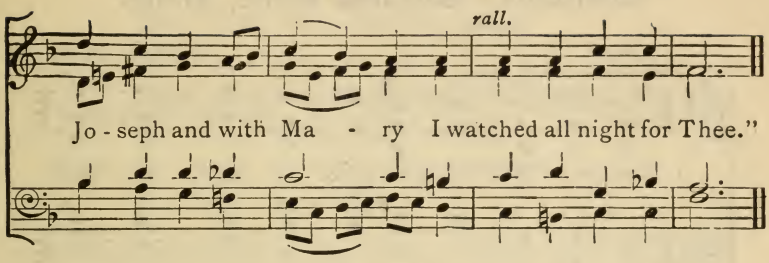
The Loving Heart.



2.

"O Jesus, when the shepherds
Came back from finding Thee,
They met me in the morning
And sent me on to see."
"Why wait until the shepherds
Told this great news to thee?
Didst thou not hear Me calling?
O come and worship Me."

3.

"O Jesus, in the manger,
I did not know my King
Until the shepherds told me
They heard the Angels sing."
"Why wait to hear the Angels,
When thine own heart of glee
Should call thee to the manger
Where I am waiting thee?"

4.

"O Jesus, it was blowing
So cold across the hill,
The distance was all blackness,
My very breath was chill."
"Why care, My child, for darkness?
Thy heart was full of light,
The thought of Me should cheer thee
All through the stormy night."

5.

"O Jesus I had nothing
To bring that night to Thee:
No gold, no myrrh, no incense
Alas! poor helpless me."
"Ten thousand times the dearer
Because so poor thou art;
Come close to Me for ever
I only need thy heart!"

Cometh at length the age of peace,
Strife and sorrow now shall cease;
Prophets foretold the wondrous story
Of this Heaven-born Prince of Glory.
Chorus. Shepherds! the chorus come and swell!

Shepherds! then up and quick away.

Ring out, ye Bells.

J. Wimsett Boulding. J. H. Wallis.

mf Ring in the star that shines from far,
God's own light bestowing;
mp No other light can break our night,
Heaven's own dawn foreshowing:
mf It burns above with God's dear love,
A love that nought can dim,
cres. 'Twill burn and shine, that light divine,
Till all are drawn to Him.

mp Ring on, ye bells, your music tells
Human love is growing;
That strifes will cease, and tides of peace
Up the world come flowing:
cres. Ring in that sea of harmony,
That flood of human love,
dim. O'er whose still breast once more will rest
The Spirit like a dove.

mf What though your spells, ye Christmas bells,
Ages have been ringing,
And angels bright through sin's long night
Christmas carols singing, cres. Still ring your chime, till every clime
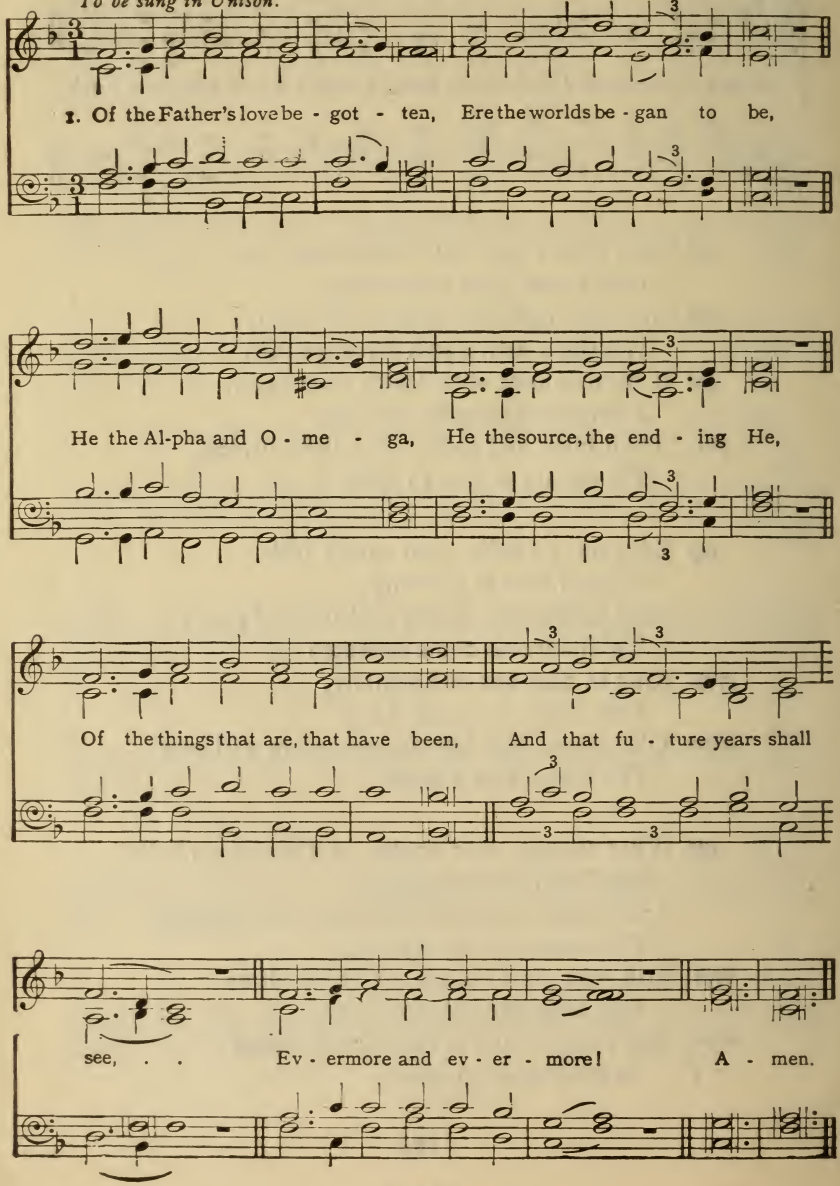
Has heard the angel throng, cres. And every sound is lost and drowned
f In their eternal song.

Christmas.

CORDE NATUS. 8.7.8.7.8.7-7. Ancient Melody.

To be sung in Unison.



1. Of the Father's love be - got - ten, Ere the worlds be - gan to be,
He the Al-pha and O - me - ga, He the source, the end - ing He,
Of the things that are, that have been, And that fu - ture years shall see, . . Ev - ermore and ev - er - more! A - men.

Christmas.

Oh, that ever-blessed birthday,
When the Virgin, full of grace,
By the Holy Ghost conceiving,
Bare the Saviour of our race;
And that Child, the world's Redeemer,
First displayed His sacred face,
Evermore and evermore!

3.

Praise Him, O ye heaven of heavens!
Praise Him, angels in the height!
Every power and every virtue
Sing the praise of God aright:
Let no tongue of man be silent,
Let each heart and voice unite,
Evermore and evermore!

Thee let age, and Thee let manhood
Thee let choirs of infants sing;
Thee the matrons and the virgins,
And the children answering:
Let their guileless song re-echo,
And their heart its praises bring,
Evermore and evermore!

5.

Christ, to Thee with God the Father,
And, O Holy Ghost, to Thee,
Hymn and chant and high thanksgiving,
And unwearied praises be:
Honor, glory, and dominion,
And eternal victory,
Evermore and evermore! Amen.
